

Youth Evangelistic Team 2010

November 18, 2009

Hello Yetties!!!!

Congratulations for earning your place on the National Youth Evangelistic Team. In about seven months we will gather in Oklahoma for our ministry tour as YET 2010! Our theme: WHEREVER is going to take us from Oklahoma through Kansas to Colorado and back to Oklahoma. The scheduled dates are June 13-29, 2010.

This year's ministry tour will focus on assisting several of our mission churches. We will be ministering in church buildings, community parks, front yards, and other requested venues that will give us many opportunities to be witnesses as we use our gifts and talents for Christ, as well as serve and share our faith with others. All the while, we will be helping our Free Will Baptist missionaries as they are planting new churches and reaching new families.

The length of our tour has been extended because of the additional travel and the renewed commitment by Randall House to stress the evangelistic component of the Youth Evangelistic Team. We are excited about the opportunity for YET 2010 to lead the NYC Youth Worship services at the National Convention in Oklahoma City. We will be together for a total of seventeen days. The length of our ministry tour will necessitate a fee of $900 for YET 2010 members. This will cover all travel expenses, lodging, and meals during the rehearsal and tour, plus a meal allotment for three days at the NYC. By the way, if you are going to be a part of Truth and Peace 2010, then you will receive a $100 discount on your total YET fee.

We are excited to be working with you. To know from experience how the Lord will knit our hearts together as we serve Him together brings us great joy. There is no greater joy than to use the gifts and talents that God has given us to honor Him, and to do that with others of like heart and mind is beyond words. It is awesome to be a part of something larger than ourselves that impacts the eternities of others! Hey, God is going to use you in ways that you cannot even begin to imagine.

We ask you to fill out the attached forms and return them to Randall House Publications by email to YET@RandallHouse.com by December 15. This will allow us the time to prepare the materials that we will use for the program during our ministry tour and then share those with each of you as early as possible. We ask each of you to begin praying for the Lord to prepare all of us for our time of ministry together.

We can't wait to hear back from you and to begin our journey together as the 2010 Youth Evangelistic Team!

God bless,

Jeff and Sherri Sloan
